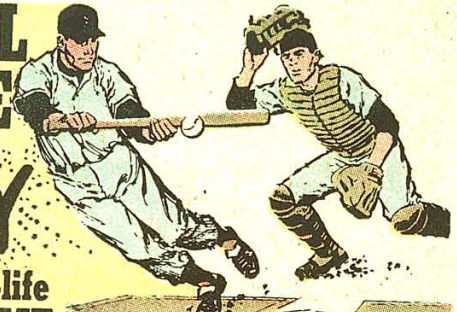
BASEBALL FANS ARE CRAZY



about this true-to-life
BASEBALL GAME

• PITCHING • HITTING • FIELDING
• RUNNING • MANAGING

Easy to play, real thrilling, exciting baseball with STRAT-O-MATIC. 400 big league players perform according to their actual abilities and your managerial decisions.

You, the manager, not only decide lineups, insert pinch-hitters, pinch-runners, and relief pitchers, play your infield "in or deep," and make defensive changes at any time, but also call for the sacrifice, steal, hit-and-run, and squeeze-play. All strategy moves are possible with STRAT-O-MATIC.

You have real control over all 400 major league players — who actually hit, pitch, field, and run according to their baseball abilities.

Each player has truly individual qualities. He slumps and goes into hot streaks, performs heroics and commits errors. With STRAT-O-MATIC all qualities of a ballplayer are realistic.

If you like baseball, you'll love to play STRAT-O-MATIC

FANS RAVE

Here are just a few of the hundreds of letters we receive every week, from baseball fans aged 8 to 80, from coast to coast!

STRAT-O-MATIC BASEBALL is the best baseball game I ever have had. Kids swamp over the back porch to play this game! Boy, it is a lot of fun! Thank you for making such a wonderful game. —P. C., Attleboro, Mass.

Just like real baseball. It is fun to play. —G. V., Cincinnati, O.

As close to realism as one can get and therefore far more superior to other competing baseball games. —F. T., Manila, P.I.

Although it's fantastically realistic, it's also very simple to play. —A. F., Los Angeles, Calif.

I'm one hundred percent satisfied with it. The game provides hours of fun for me and my friends. It's very realistic, and true to life. —C. H., Lanett, Ala.

The best baseball game. It is realistic and yet not too difficult to play. —P. M., Port Huron, Mich.

Thank you for creating such an exciting yet realistic game and putting a shine to what might have been a boring summer. —N. S., Los Angeles, Calif.

Boys are waiting in line to play the game! —A. H., Chicago, Ill.

It has given me more pleasure than any other game. —S. E., Rossville, Ind.

The most exciting and fun game ever. —L.S., Boston, Mass.

Best on the market. —J. E., Miami, Fla.

Has given me more enjoyment than I have ever had from any one thing in my entire life. It's worth its weight in gold. As I love baseball, this game gives me something enjoyable to do during the off seasons as well as during the season. —S. C., Temple City, Calif.

THE LATEST AND GREATEST GOODIES FROM MANIACAL MARVEL!

ITEM: Here's big news for all members of the good ol' Merry Marvel Marching Society, and for those of you who intend to join. Remember years ago, when we started the MMMS? We promised we wouldn't just swear you in and forget about you. Then what happened? We forgot about you! Naw, we didn't really — but what DID happen is — our mags became so much more popular than we ever dreamed they would, and we became so much busier than we ever expected to, that we just never had the time to do all the things we had hoped to do with our swingin' little club. But, we've managed to change all that now! And the change is so important, that we're gonna give it a paragraph all to itself — just like this —

ITEM: We had the greatest stroke of luck the other day. We met a fanatical Marvelite who also happens to be a most talented California executive. He's so impressed with our mags, and our club membership roster, that he made us a fantastic offer, which we've just accepted. From now on, the MMMS will be incorporated into a fabulous parent organization named MARVELMANIA INTERNATIONAL! Because of this great new development, there'll be an entire new company, independent of your Bullpen, working around the clock to make your club exactly what you want it to be. So watch for the exciting announcements about Marvelmania International in our mags, and remember — you won't be watching alone. We're as anxious to see what's coming next as you are!

ITEM! Guess who's just returned to the fold? None other than ol' GIL (Sugar) KANE, who's teamed up with Rascally ROY and Dapper DAN ADKINS on the greatest CAPTAIN MARVEL epic of all time! (Well, since yesterday, anyway). You'll be thrilling to a brand-new Mar-Vell starting this month, and you'll have only yourself to blame if you miss it. Not only is Gil's artistry a joy to behold, but it just happens to feature CAPTAIN AMERICA, RICK JONES, and more surprises than you can count. We kid thee not!

ITEM: Speaking of awesome artistry, let's welcome Slammin' SAMMY GRAINGER to the hallowed halls of Marvel. You've already applauded his inimitable inking on various X-MEN and SHIELD strips, but starting now, he's lending his talents to the power-packed pencilling of Our Pal SAL BUSCEMA to carry the mighty AVENGERS to even greater pinnacles of glory! And if you wonder how we'll manage it, what with Sal living in Virginia and the Slammer nestled 'way down in North Carolina, we can only say — it won't be easy! (Don't be surprised if you hear 'em shout "Avengers Assemble, y'all" from now on!)

ITEM! Hey, did we tell you about Adorable ARTIE SIMEK? Or, perhaps you've already caught him on the nighttime Alan Burke show, where (cross our heart!) he played the harmonica and spoons! Sly ol' STAN can't wait to ask him how the heck he manages to tune his spoon!

ITEM: Suddenly, the fabulous FANTASTIC FOUR have become the talk of Marveldom! First, everyone flipped over the way we playfully parodied the theme of TV's "The Prisoner" some months back — and now, the FF's adventures on the planet of the Skrulls — with overtones of every vintage gangster movie you've ever seen—are knocking fandom out of its collective tree! Take a bow, LEE and KIRBY — we don't know how you do it — "specially considering the fact that your Galactus episode in the current THOR is probably the absolute high point in imaginative illustrated fantasy!

STAN'S SOAPBOX

This is it, gang! An announcement so momentous that it's taken us months to get up the nerve to make it! Starting as soon as possible, we're abandoning our policy of continued stories! Yep, that means we'll try to make every Marvel masterwork complete in each issue! Our mail has been running 50-50 for and against, and since we personally preferred the continued yarns, we kept them going. But, we finally decided that the other 50% of Marveldom should have equal rights, and it's always exciting to make a change. It's gonna make our job much tougher — we'll have to shorten our plots — perhaps tone down on our sub-plots, and tighten our pacing. But it's the least we can do for our rollickin' readers, and it'll be fun to see how it works out. A few current tales may take another ish or two to wrap up, and occasionally we may HAVE to present a two-parter — but, by and large, we've given up our continued stories till further notice! Now for the love of Odin, write as soon as you can and tell us how you feel about it. If we're making another bonehead mistake, next month's column may be written by Irving Forbush!

Excelsior!
Smiley

THE SPIDER'S WEB

SEND YOUR LETTERS TO:
THE MARVEL COMICS GROUP, SECOND FLOOR 625 MADISON AV., NEW YORK, N. Y. 10022

Dear Stan and John,

SPIDER-MAN is consistently a source of comfort to the comic fanatic. Most comic enthusiasts maintain that the comic strip is as much an art form as its competitors: literature, cinema, painting, etc. Stan Lee has echoed that comment in his monthly soap-box. And, SPIDER-MAN consistently is a pertinent social comment, reflecting style and dress of our current fashions, presenting the tone of language in the youth of today. SPIDER-MAN contains the elements of all superior literature. A strong supporting cast creates believability about the central characters. This is one area in which most strips fail. Yet, SPIDER-MAN has all the complex attitudes of a huge metropolis. Scenes shift from newsrooms to police stations or college campuses. Social mores and current conflicts can be examined or commented upon. The popularity of SPIDER-MAN does not merely rest upon his battles with foes as the Shocker.

The acceptance of this strip is that it shows just where it's at. A supporter of the comic strip can present this comic in almost any issue and say that the field of illustration can, indeed, be an art form. He can produce evidence easily. Turn to any page. Witness the continuing characters struggling through their lives in the turmoil of a large city. People reappear as if out of the past. Flash Thompson returns on furlough. This is a maturer version of what youth, wizened in the ways of the world, experienced in despair. The relationship, the family relationship, of Gwen and her father becomes more intricately described with each succeeding issue. New people invade the surroundings of Peter Parker as others seem to fade slowly out. Yet, Peter Parker walks on through the rain, subtly changing, catching colds, seeking for social acceptance and meaning to his life. And this is the magic which makes SPIDER-MAN come to life.

Donald F. McGregor, 43 Wildwood Ave.
Providence, R. I. 02907

Thanks, Don. There isn't much we can add to such plaudits except to murmur our customary "'Nuff said!" and walk on thru the rain ourselves! Excelsior!

Dear Stan, and John,

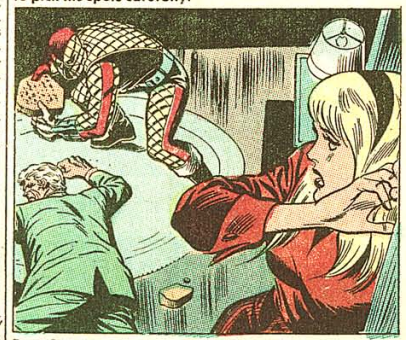
Well, SPIDER-MAN #72 was another sensation! The cover, as usual, was stupendous, and John again drew a great ish. The return of the Shocker was excellent, but you certainly should have kept him around for another issue because we probably won't be seeing him again for two years or so. I also felt that the battle between Spidey and the Shocker could have been a lot better, and even though it was good, it wasn't nearly as great as was when they first confronted each other way back in issue #46. Gwen was really drawn with authority, and I was surprised to see that stupid Flash Thompson. I never did like that guy!

Stan's story was superb (aren't they all?) and speaking of Stan, I saw the article in EYE Magazine. It was terrific! However, I thought that Marvel's human matchstick is called the Torch, not the Flame. (Hmmm.) Incidentally, you in the Bullpen just have to bring back the Scorpion, so do it soon, already. I also hope that you feature the re-return of the grotesque Green Goblin. I felt as though you blew the bit by having the Goblin's memory altered again in the mag of the year, namely SPIDER-MAN SPECTACULAR #2. A probable way out would have been to have the Goblin just on the verge of seeing again who Spider-Man was, but not doing so. Thus, the Goblin would have an irresistible urge to fight Spidey to satisfy his curiosity of learning of Spidey's identity. This, you'll have to admit, would be a good motive for him to fight Spidey.

Anyway, getting back to issue #72, you sure put Peter in the doghouse again with Gwen, didn't you? Can't you just leave off of the poor boy for a few issues at least, and give him a couple of good breaks? Man, when it comes to having luck, Pete comes a sure last-finisher. Whoops, my web formula is bubbling, so keep up the good work, group.

Bill Labrie, Box 246
Athabasca, Alberta, Canada

We'll do our best, Bill. And you can bet that the Green Goblin will pop up again one of these days — but not until we think that we have just the right situation, just the right plot for him! After all, when a villain has as loyal a group-following as ol' Gobby, he's got to pick his spots carefully!



Dear Stan,

I have a few very old Spideys and most of the very new ones. Could you tell me what happened to J.J.J.'s magazine known as NOW, and what happened to Peter's glasses?

Kim Heitman, Flat 8, 24 Kintail Road
Applecross, Perth, W.A. 6153

To tell the truth, we're not quite sure ourselves about the current status of Jameson's onetime magazine, although we hereby promise to look into the matter.

However, concerning Peter Parker's specs — it seems that the dear lad broke them in one particularly agonizin' adventure, and never got around to getting new ones. Probably, although we don't think we ever quite spelled it out, he had discovered that his spider powers had increased his vision, so that he didn't need them any more.

Hmmm . . . now all we need to blow that little theory to kingdom come is to find out that spiders have lousy eyesight!

KNOW YE THESE, THE HALLOWED RANKS OF MARVELDOM:

R.F.O. (Real Frantic One)—A buyer of at least 3 Marvel mags a month.

T.T.B. (Titanic True Believer) — A divinely-inspired No-Prize' winner.

Q.N.S. (Quite 'Nuff Sayer) — A fortunate frantic one who's had a letter printed.

K.O.F. (Keeper Of the Flame) — One who recruits a newcomer to Marvel's rollickin' ranks.

P.M.M. (Permanent Marvelite Maximus) — Anyone possessing all four of the other titles.

F.F.F. (Fearless Front-Facer) — An honorary title bestowed for devotion to Marvel above and beyond the call of duty.

Dear Stan and John,

I tend to agree with the basic idea expressed by Bennet Marks in his letter printed in SPIDER-MAN #73. Something should be changed with Aunt May. I don't necessarily think having her die would really be the solution, although I must admit that for the five years I have been reading this mag, her constant frailty had been something of a drag. The thing is this — the same basic situation has been continuing unchanged for too long. The other superheroes have made basic changes in the past couple of years, but the only thing that has happened to Peter Parker is that he has graduated from high school, gone to college, and changed a few girl friends — big deal!

I must say that I would kind of miss Aunt May, although I don't think her present character or circumstances is worth many more issues of the same old Peter-Parker-style traumas. On the other hand, just to bump her off, whether from "natural causes" or as part of a super-plot, would deprive the magazine of a major character and the entire comics group of an ongoing octogenarian; something of a rarity, after all.

All right! As she is, she must not discover that her Peter is that awful Spider-Man — she's on the verge of utter collapse, and that would do it. But, it would be food for plot if a few people knew who Spidey is — more and more could find out as the issues roll out until, perhaps, in a year or so, the secret would be out. What to do with May . . .

Introduce a brilliant young doctor — May could develop a tumor, say, and out of gratitude, Dr. Connors could put Spidey in touch with him. Only he can save Aunt May, but he would have to use a radical new technique he'd been working on but which was not yet perfected or tested. Time is short, Aunt May is wheeled into the Marvelmachine, and the switch is thrown.

Next issue, we discover all did not go right. May is alive, but her bodily readings are changed. All of Marveldom assembles around to witness (what else) the birth of a new super hero, albeit an aged one. The first of the Senior Superheroines! (The Golden Oldie?) How's that strike you, guys?

Dirck L. Van Sickle, 174 Lexington Avenue
New York City, N. Y. 10016

As the biggest put-on since Honest Irv claimed that Stan Lee was only his psuedonym, Dirck!

Getting right down to cases, it would seem that Aunt May is no longer quite on the verge of collapse that she was a few short moons ago — 'twould appear that the sunny Florida climate agrees with her! Still, soap-opera senior citizen that she is, who knows but that she may suffer a relapse at any moment!

Just the same, however, it's not really our bag to turn either toddlin' tykes or aging octogenarians (which May isn't, by the way) into superheroes or supervillains! This has been done enough times in the past by our capricious competitors, who seem to find something endlessly amusing in having a costumed character suddenly find himself an infant in arms, a senile bumbler, or possibly some type of invalid or freak. We try to steer away from such vergings on sick humor, except where they are some inimical to other plot developmens as to be all but inevitable. Don't get us wrong, pilgrim — we're not accusing anybody of bad taste, because such evil is generally in the eye of the beholder — but you'll have to forgive us if merry Marvel marches to a somewhat different drummer! Okay?

Dear ????

Every time I get one of your new mags, I rush home to zip off a new letter to you. To make a long story short, I just got SPIDEY #73 in the mail, so I just had to congratulate you on your greatest story as of late.

It was tremendous! The color scheming was much better, (as you've been promising) and the new villain was an unexpected and interesting twist, but, best of all, was the surprise ending. Something in the SPIDER'S WEB alarmed me, though. It was the letter from a Mr. Marks. In it he says: "I envision Peter telling, along with Harry and Gwen, Mary Jane, Flash, Randy, and maybe Joe Robertson, George Stacy, and Curt Connors." I think this is ridiculous! Sure, it would solve a lot of his problems, but what if one of these people was seen with Spidey and was forced to reveal his true identity? Besides this, what if one of them were to let the secret slip? It could be issue #39 and #40 all over again.

Face it, Spidophiles, even if it did work out, who wants Spidey's hang-ups removed? We all agree that his hang-ups make him the most interesting hero we have ever read about, so why change him? I know he will have to change or he will get old, but why so drastic? Spidey is so great now, that he makes me proud to say, MAKE MINE MARVEL!

Mike FitzGerald, 3502 Arch Street
Orlando, Florida 32808

Have no fear, Mike. Despite our answer to Bob Emmett, below, we obviously have no intention whatever of getting rid of all of Peter Parker's various hang-ups. As you so validly point out, they are a part and parcel of the web-spinner himself.

However, we do like to vary them from time to time, as old situations clear themselves up and new problems arise. This is, after all, what has made Spidey what he is today namely, a nervous wreck!

Dear Stan and John,

Having been a real Spidophile from way back (would ya believe Adult Fantasy #15. I have finally found out what organization you people belong to. Forthwith, consider yourselves members of the S.S.A.S.N.P. This is the Sadistic Society Against Spider-Men Named Peter. Lo and behold the diminishment of the Parker-Brant relationship. Then, to my wondering eyes what should appear, but the Parker-Stacy affair. Well now, how about giving a guy an even break? Never have I witnessed two people so cognizant, yet so blind to one another feelings. Have a heart.

Things in Nam are depressing enough. I bought another subscription to Spidey in order to periodically brighten the day. It just tears my tonsils out. Doesn't Petey ever kiss girls like the rest of us? I just know that you would let Petey get so far on a date with Gwen and then have something come across where he would have to invent some hambone excuse to leave.

As one of the oldtimers, I'm just asking for a little slack for my favorite Spider-Man. Let's try to disband the S.S.A.S.N.P. in the near future. Erstwhile, I might even shed real tears.

Robert E. Emmett, AG # USS, Okinawa LPH-3
FPO, San Francisco 96601

Sheesh — and here we thought that, of late, we had made Spidey's life a veritable bed of roses, compared to what it used to be! No heart attacks for dear old Aunt May (in fact, no Aunt May, for all practical purposes) — gorgeous Gwenny obviously hung up on our wondrous wall-crawler — even a favorable headline in the Daily Bugle itself!

You want all this — and happiness too for Mr. P.? Maybe one day, Bob, but not just yet — after all, you've gotta start small with these things. If we had poutin' Petey smile for two panels in a row, half our readers wouldn't recognize 'im!

Do you have art talent worth developing? Take our free test and see

If you have ever wondered whether you had art talent, here is your chance to find out. The founders of Famous Artists School have put together what many artists and educators consider to be the most revealing test of art ability ever devised. It is offered to you free.

Designed for people uncertain of their ability

The people who take this Art Talent Test are of all ages and occupations. Most of them have little or no previous art training. By professional standards, their drawings may be awkward and amateurish. But the ones who possess the gift of art talent reveal it in many ways. Through simple little exercises, they show the inborn sense of design, the feeling for composition, the ability to observe, and the lively imagination which are such important ingredients of art talent.

The reliability of this method of screening, as well as the effectiveness of the training, has been proven again and again by the success of our students and graduates.

They passed the test and went on to become successful artists

When Anthony Fotia took the Art Talent Test, he was a mail clerk, "stuck" in a low-pay routine job. Today, he's an artist for a printing firm, doing exciting creative work. Kathleen Gironda went from a salesgirl in a department store to a fashion illustrator in the same store. Virginia Bartter, a farmer's wife and mother of three, now sells just about everything she paints. These are just a few of the literally hundreds of "success stories" our students report to us.

So if you love to sketch or dabble in paints —and have often wondered if you "have what it takes" to become a well-paid commercial artist or spare-time professional painter—why not seize this opportunity to find out? All you need is a pencil and a half-hour of your time. With your special interest, it will be one of the most intriguing and enjoyable half-hours you ever spent.

What the Talent Test covers

First, you will be shown ten pairs of simple designs and asked to pick the one in each pair that has "a feeling of rightness" about it. Then you will see twenty pairs of pictures, and check which composition in each pair is more pleasing. You'll be asked to do original sketches to demonstrate your imagination and powers of observation. And in similar ways, your instinctive feeling for mood, form, movement, facial expressions, textures, and so on will be tested.

When you complete the test and mail it back, it will be graded free by a member of the School's staff. If you receive a passing grade (and we must warn you that many don't), or can offer sufficient evidence of art talent, you will then be eligible to enroll. You may choose whichever of our courses is best suited to your goals.

Courses offer personal instruction

These courses were especially designed for talented people who can't leave their families or jobs for art training away from home. The 12 famous artists who started the School over 19 years ago contributed all their lifetime secrets of art technique to what they believe to be the finest art lessons ever created. They took time out from their own busy careers and made thousands of special drawings to demonstrate each point. Then they devised a method of constructive criticism that is as personal as tutoring. Your instructor, who is himself required to be a practicing professional artist, spends up to several hours on just one of your assignments. He actually draws or paints his suggestions for improvement on a separate sheet of paper, and then "talks" to you by letter, dictating a long, friendly message of specific advice and encouragement.

You will receive an interesting brochure about our School and its revolutionary methods along with your free Art Talent Test. If you have ever dreamed of success in art, and wondered if it were possible, why not mail the coupon at left for both the Talent Test and the brochure right now?

SOME QUESTIONS ANSWERED

Q. How is it possible? It seems incredible to be able to get all the equipment shown above in just nine kits — at only $4.95 per kit!

A. The direct-to-you "no middleman" club plan is just part of the answer. The other key is ABSClub's especially designed multi-use equipment. For example: the Microprojector quickly and easily converts into the Spectroscope, Photo Enlarger and Cloud Chamber Illuminator. Similarly, the Transit doubles as a Telescope Mount. Such multi-purpose design . . . plus club plan economy . . . makes possible this all-science program at a price everyone can afford.

Q. May members choose the order in which they receive their kits?

A. Yes. With the first kit members receive a list of the equipment and projects contained in each of the remaining eight kits. With this information they are able to choose the kit sequence that best suits their particular interest.

Q. Can members get their kits all at once instead of one-a-month?

A. Yes. At any time members can have the balance of their kits sent in one shipment. We recommend that you start on the kit-a-month plan because the monthly spacing will give you time to get the full measure of knowledge and enjoyment that each kit has to offer.

MAKE SCIENCE YOUR HOBBY!
